

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE RECORDING
SECRETARY, 1905.

To the President and Members of the Columbia Historical Society:

The Recording Secretary submits this, the Twelfth Annual Report, beginning with the 77th meeting, January 9, 1905, and ending with the 83rd meeting on December 11, of the same year.

The Secretary's mailing list shows 8 resignations, 5 deaths and 10 new members during the year, making a total of 271 names carried on the Society's list of members.

The Board of Managers has held 9 meetings, at which the average attendance has been 10. The Society has held 7 meetings in the Banquet Hall of the Hotel Shoreham, at which the average attendance has been 71, a much better showing than last year, when the average was but 55. Seven historical communications were made to the Society and its guests and 33 persons discussed the different subjects presented.

A new feature in volume 9 of The Records, published this year, is the addition of three interesting reprints of scarce and early pamphlets concerning the District of Columbia. One of these reprints is enriched by the half-tone reproduction of a miniature likeness of Tobias Lear, Secretary to George Washington.

On the 22nd of February, the Society was entertained at a luncheon given at the Shoreham by Vice-President Hagner to "commemorate the Birthday of the Father of his Country."

The Board has lost the wise counsels of Professor McGee because of his appointment as Director of the Public Museum in St. Louis. He is a charter member and has been one of the managers in its Governing Board ever since its organization. But though compelled to sever his connection with the Board,

Professor McGee retains his membership and interest in the Society.

The Corresponding Secretary, Mr. M. I. Weller, reports that all letters have been promptly answered and information furnished whenever requested, though often involving many hours of patient research.

Faithfully,

MARY STEVENS BEALL,
Recording Secretary.

January 8, 1906.